

Andrew L. Farkas, P.C.

Attorney

Andrew L. Farkas

Mediator

Certification: Attorney Ad Litem

Member: College of the State Bar of Texas

Fellow, Texas Bar Foundation

Past President: Collin County Criminal

Defense Lawyers Association

6200 Chase Oaks Blvd. Suite 102B

Plano, Texas 75023

Telephone: (972) 423-9393

Telecopier: (972) 424-1636

Office E-mail: alfarkaslaw@gmail.com

Cathy Compton Weatherhead

Paralegal

cweatherhead@yahoo.com

Professional Résumé

Bachelor of Arts (Political Science) Michigan State University, 1972

Commissioned 2nd Lt. United States Air Force, 1972

Juris Doctor, Boston University School of Law, 1975

Licensed: Supreme Judicial Court, Commonwealth of Massachusetts, 1975

Licensed: United States District Court, District of Massachusetts, 1976

Judge Advocate, United States Air Force, 1976-1980

Licensed: United States Court of Military Appeals, 1976

Base Claims Officer, Dyess AFB, Texas 1976-1978

Circuit Trial Counsel, USAF Trial Judiciary, Maxwell AFB, AL, 1978-1980

United States Air Force Reserve 1980-1983

Licensed: Supreme Court of the State of Texas, 1980

Licensed: United States District Court, Northern District of Texas, 1980

Self Employed in Private Practice 1981 through the Present

Trained as a mediator 1996

President, Collin County Criminal Defense Lawyers Association, 2003-2004

Member: College of the State Bar of Texas

Fellow, Texas Bar Foundation, Admitted 2007

Licensed: United States District Court, Eastern District of Texas, 2013

Certified: Attorney ad Litem, 2014

Contributor to A Dictionary of American Legal Terms with Chinese English Explanation

By Yarong Zhou

Personal:

President, Congregation Anshai Emet, 1998

President, Congregation Anshai Torah, 1998-1999

President, Bnai Zion Foundation, Texas Region, 2005-2006

Born 1950 New York City, New York

Married to Dr. Ferne B. Farkas

Three children:

Leah P. Farkas

Rabbi Noah Z. Farkas

Daniel M. Farkas